

DISRUPTING HARM AGAINST CHILDREN

Lessons from Asia

How can we improve our understanding of the pathways to sexual exploitation and reduce the stigma surrounding disclosure of sexual violence against children? The Pan Pacific and South East Asia Women's Association International (PPSEAWA) and ECPAT International have jointly organized a Parallel Event during the 66th Session of the Commission on the Status of Women at the United Nations to address online child sexual abuse and sexual exploitation from multi-country perspectives in Asia.

Agenda

- Introductory Remarks from Akari Yamada PPSEAWA 1st Vice President
- Panel discussion moderated by Thomas Mueller, Deputy Executive Director/Network Development and External Relations, ECPAT International
- Dr. Raj Abdul Karim of ECPAT Malaysia
- Rangsim Deesawade, ECPAT Regional Coordinator for Southeast Asia
- Sunhye Kang of ECPAT Korea
- Concluding Remarks from Mikiko Otani, Chairperson of United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC)
- Q & A
